

Privacy Policy

Strawberry Fields Country Manor (Pty) Ltd

Information about Privacy Policy

Dear Customer,

We would like to inform customers that, our policy relating to regulations safeguarding the interests of people and other individuals with regard to their personal data, the personal information provided by our customers or otherwise acquired in our operations will be handled according to the relative privacy laws and the strict discretion observed by Strawberry Fields Country Manor (Pty) Ltd site. The handling of personal data refers to the collection, registration, organisation, storage, elaboration, modification, selection, extraction, comparison, use, interconnection, restriction, communication, diffusion, cancellation and distribution of such data or the combination of two or more of the aforementioned operations. Personal data is handled by authorised staff appointed by Strawberry Fields Country Manor (Pty) Ltd site or its Legal Representative. The data will be used for commercial purposes, connected or instrumental to the activities of our company, and therefore will be used-

1. To respect the provisions of the law in general.
2. For internal operational or management requirements or those relating to the Service, namely, but not exclusively, with reference to auditing purposes; as well as, subject to the Customer's consent,
3. To collect information about customers' tastes and preferences regarding travel and social-demographic information to provide a personalised, quality service
4. To provide information about our products and services, or those of our partners, and other opportunities we deem of potential interest to our customers;

To process aggregated statistics for sales, customers, traffic tables and other information and to communicate such statistics to third parties. The statistics shall not include any information which may lead to the identification of the customer.